

CITI Training

How to Find and Select the UCLA NSF RCR Course

1. After logging onto CITI using your UCLA Single Sign-on (SSO), you will see the following screen. Click on “View Courses.”

2. Click on “Add a course” to enroll in the UCLA NSF Responsible Conduct of Research course.

CITI Training

How to Find and Select the UCLA NSF RCR Course

3. Complete the enrollment process by selecting answers to the questions as shown below and then click "Next."

CITI PROGRAM My Courses My Records My CE/CMEs Support

Select Curriculum
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

English

Question 1

SECTION ONE: DETERMINING THE TRAINING REQUIRED In order to determine which course(s) you may need to take, please indicate which of the following categories apply to you (check all that apply).

This question is required. Choose all that apply.

- I conduct human subjects research/Realizo investigaciones con sujetos humanos (CHRRP) (SECTION TWO)
- I conduct animal research (ISAWA) (SECTION THREE)
- I conduct research that involves using infectious biological material or recombinant or synthetic nucleic acids (IBC) (SECTION FOUR)
- I conduct research in the area of Prevention of Dual Use Research of Concern (DURC) (ISAWA) (SECTION FIVE)
- I was instructed to take a course by Research Delegates/Committees in order to meet the Responsible Conduct of Research training requirements of the Agency funding the research (SECTION SIX)
- I have a special role (CHRRP Staff, IRB member, IACUC member, IBC member, DURC committee member, Institutional Official) in the research enterprise at UCLA that requires me to take training (SECTION SEVEN)

Start Over Next

CITI PROGRAM My Courses My Records My CE/CMEs Support

Select Curriculum
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

English

Question 15

SECTION SIX: Responsible Conduct of Research

Which Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) Course best matches the type of research you will be conducting? Note: This training is required for students (undergraduate or graduate) or a postdoctoral scholars supported by a National Science Foundation (NSF) grant.

This question is required. Choose one answer.

- Yes, UCLA NSF Responsible Conduct of Research Course (Required)
- Yes, Biological Responsible Conduct of Research Course
- Yes, Social and Behavioral Responsible Conduct of Research Course
- Yes, Physical Science Responsible Conduct of Research Course
- Yes, Humanities Responsible Conduct of Research Course

Start Over Next

CITI Training

How to Find and Select the UCLA NSF RCR Course

4. The enrollment process is complete. Begin the course by clicking on "Start Now."

